Maps

ISSOM 2007, 1:4000, contours 2 m.

Drawn in the spring of 2016 by Ábel PINTÉR (ROB) and Nándor VANCSIK (ORVB).

Terrain

ROB: Typical setting of a Hungarian town, with different density of buildings and roads, partially with big parks and playgrounds. Mainly hard surface with great runnability, no big climbs. Altitude 160-180 metres above sea level.

ORVB: Diverse terrain with a holiday resort village, parks and forest. Thus the visibility and runnability changes between excellent and reduced with some big climbs. Altitude 310-400 metres above sea level.
